3.This agreement is an assured shorthold tenancy (as defined in section 19A of the Housing Act 1988). The arrangements in section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 for the landlord to repossess the property apply to this agreement. This means that you cannot claim any legal rights to stay on once the tenancy has ended and a court order says you must leave. The landlord giving a section-21 notice must give at least two months notice, in writing. For more information, you should consult a housing advice centre, solicitor or citizens advice bureau who will tell you what this means

4We will let the property to you (individually and together) and only you and (Enter Name) will be allowed to live there.

5.No children are allowed to live in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold).

6.No animals are allowed in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold). We can withdraw this permission if we have a good reason which will be registered with the deposit scheme.

You will get the deposit back when this agreement ends and you leave the property, as long as you have kept to all the agreements and conditions and you have paid all the rent and bills for the property. If you do not do so, we may take from your deposit any rent, or other money you owe us, reasonable compensation if you have broken any of your agreements, or the reasonable cost of making good any damage which is not caused by fair wear and tear. We will keep the deposit until you have produced satisfactory proof that you have paid for the utility bills (electricity, gas, water and phone) for the property. If you fail to provide proof, we may pay any charges you owe and claim these from you. If we cannot agree any of these amounts, the matter will be decided by the county court unless we can agree on some other way of sorting out the dispute.

8. You cannot use the deposit to pay rent under this agreement

9.If there is more than one tenant is chosen to deal with the deposit on your behalf (jointly and individually) and on behalf of anyone who is not a tenant please let us know in writing. 11 We may keep keys to the property

12 We may remove, store or sell or otherwise get rid of any furniture or goods which you refuse to remove or fail to remove from the property at the end of the tenancy. You will be responsible for all reasonable costs which we may have because of this. We are entitled to take the costs and any money you owe us from any money made from selling the furniture or goods.

B You must do the following:

2 Pay our reasonable costs for sending reminder letters. These will be £15.00 for each reminder. We reserve the rights to take this from the deposit at the end of the tenancy

This includes repairing damage caused in this way to the property and, if it applies, the building in which the property is based and any shared access, replacing any broken glass in windows and repairing or replacing any damaged fittings and installations. If you do not repair the damage you are responsible for, we can claim the reasonable cost of making good this damage or we may give you written notice asking you to repair the damage within a reasonable period of time, depending on the repairs that need to be done. If you fail to do this within the period of notice given, we may then enter the property (after giving you at least 24 hours notice, in writing) and carry out the work. You will have to pay us for the reasonable cost of this work. We reserve the rights to take this from the deposit at the end of the tenancy stopcock and open all the other water taps and valves in the property to drain the tanks of hot and cold water.

8 Whenever you leave the property unattended, you must lock all the doors and windows and put the burglar alarm on (if there is one). You should tell us if the property is going to be empty for more than seven days in a row.

We do not have to take the property or the tenancy back from you early unless we want to do so.

10 Allow us or our agents to come into the property at all reasonable hours of the day to inspect the condition of the property, to carry out repairs or to do other work which we must carry out by law. We will give you at least 24 hours written notice if we are going to enter the property. You must let us enter the property immediately if here is an emergency.

11 Tell us about any repairs or faults that we are responsible for in the structure or outside of the property, in any installation or, if it applies, in the shared areas.

12 Park vehicles in your garage (if there is one) or on your parking space only and without causing an obstruction.

13 Pay the reasonable costs for replacing locks if you fail to return any key. We reserve the rights to take this from the deposit at the end of the tenancy

14 Pay any reasonable cost for getting replacement keys. We reserve the rights to take this from the deposit at the end of the tenancy 18 Be responsible for looking after the garden. You must keep it tidy and cut any grass regularly, but you do not have to improve the garden.

19 At the end of the tenancy, leave the property and our fixtures and fittings in as good a condition as at the start of the tenancy (apart from fair wear and tear) and free from rubbish
